Care should be taken that the documents are not folded, so folded documents are rather inconvenient for being photographed. The documents should be in a suitable pad as far as possible. With the list should also be sent envelopes only stamped (together with yellow remittance) and correctly addressed for the documents to be returned by post. He will not return the list but will file it in his office.

(x) In case any discrepancy in the contents of the packet when compared with the above list is noticed, the officer in charge of the Photo office should at once refer the matter to the Sub-Registrar who shall account for it within the least delay. If the Sub-Registrar cannot explain and if a document seems to have been lost, then the delinquent enquiry must be made at once and report made to the District Registrar immediately.

(xi) The officer in charge of the Photo office shall then arrange for the photographing of the documents. A single photo copy of each document shall not be taken. This number is fixed for ordinary case of documents which attract property in one sub-district. In special documents which relate to property situated in more than one district, also no more than one copy is to be sent under sections 44 to 47, with photo copies shall be sent in their stead. many additional copies. If an application is made to the Sub-Registrar for a copy of any deed before his seat in the Photo office, registration for each copy shall also be similarly noted on the list and the copy will be sent with the documents to the Sub-Registrar or to any other address given. The photo officer shall affix his signature and send to all copies of documents photographed in token of the exact correspondence of the copies to the original documents.
